

Researching Everyday Life, University of Sheffield, January 13th 2011

Anthropology of Britain and ICOSS

Panel 1: Practical ethics and information

10-10.15 Speed Introductions

10.15-10.45 Roger Ballard

Applied Anthropology: A viable career path in Britain?

10.45-11.15 Katharine Dow University of Edinburgh
Ethnical Consumption – An Alimentary Analogy'

11.15-11.45 A. M. Cox

Information in an every day practice: 365 self portrait projects

11.45 – 12.00 Tea break

Panel 2: Methodologies: looking, listening and writing

12.00-12.30 Susan Hogan, Univeristy of Derby and University of Sheffield
Image of Boomhall, Sheffield. Urban Violence and Using the Arts of a Research Aid

12.30-1.00 Harriet Bradley, Will Atkinson and Adam Sales
Ordinary Lives, Different Worlds: Studying the Everyday Life of Class

1.00-1.30 Kate Pahl, University of Sheffield
The materialities of literacy: researching writing in the home

1.30- 2.10 Lunch

Panel 3: Gendering homes and bodies

2.15 – 2.45 Insa Koch, University of Oxford
'Getting on': Negotiating the stigma of the 'single mother' in women's everyday lives

2.45 – 3.15 Angela Meah, University of Sheffield
Reconstituting 'Masculinity' through Everyday Kitchen Practices

3.15-3.45 Lorna Warren and Naomi Richard, University of Sheffield
'I don't see many images of myself coming back to myself?': Images of women and everyday ageing

3.45-4.00 Tea break

4.00-5.15pm Developing collaborative connections